

Replaces whole “Technology Director” section

The Technology Director is responsible for managing and maintaining all technology used by CIF.

The Technology Director shall create an Acceptable Use Policy and Information Technology policy to outline and control usage of CIF’s technological resources.

The Technology Director has the authority to grant and remove access to any and all CIF technological resources.